1. Competitive Cash Award Undergraduate Scholarships

1.1 Barbara Raw Scholarships for English

Five cash award scholarships are available to new first year undergraduate students from one of the eligible degree courses.

1.1.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new undergraduate students applying for one of the following courses:

- a. BA English
- b. BA English and Drama
- c. BA English and History
- d. BA English with Philosophy
- e. BA Music and English
- f. BA English and Film Studies
- g. BA English and Classical Studies
- h. BA English and American Literature
- i. BA English and Creative Writing
- j. BA Modern Languages and English
- k. BA Comparative Literature and Culture and English
- l. BA Drama and Creative Writing

Applicants must study full-time.

To be considered for this award, applicants must have achieved high grades at A-level or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades. For example, previous applicants have achieved/been predicted AAA or equivalent.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

Successful applicants are normally required to maintain an average academic grade of at least sixty percent to continue to be eligible for the cash award after their first year.

Applicants cannot hold this scholarship in conjunction with the Barbara Raw Scholarship for English Access Scholarship.

1.1.2 Allocation

Applicants must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 400 words.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be also scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

1.1.3 Payment

This scholarship is awarded as a cash award of £5000 in total, given in instalments over three years of study at Royal Holloway: £3,000 in year 1, £1,000 in year 2 and £1,000 in year 3.

Students on a four-year undergraduate degree who spend their third year on a placement will not receive any scholarship funding for that third year. However, for the fourth year of the undergraduate degree, the cash award will apply.

For students on a four-year course with no external placement or a five-year course with an external placement, the scholarship will be disbursed in the first three years of the degree course only.

Applicants must have Home or Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be applying for their first Masters degree.

Applicants must have achieved a UK First Class Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must demonstrate financial need for the scholarship.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.18.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 400 words.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be assessed on their financial need through their demonstration that without the financial support of the scholarship, they would not be able to undertake further study.

4.18.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £8,100.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split over their first two years of study only.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.
